

	Privacy Notice – Data Protection Act 2018 STAFF – September 2023 Issue

Under Data Protection Law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about our staff and volunteers.

Ruislip High School is a registered 'data controller' for the purposes of Data Protection law. The school has a Data Protection Policy, a copy of which can be obtained from the school's website.

The school has appointed a Data Protection Lead (DPL) who is your first point of contact for any queries or subject access requests.

The Data Protection Lead for Ruislip High School is Richard Gould, Senior Leader.

The school is also required to appoint a Data Protection Officer. Your DPO is:
Miss Karen Williams, Business Manager, kwilliams@vynersschool.org.uk, 01895 234342

The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details
- Date of birth, marital status and gender
- Next of kin and emergency contact numbers
- Salary, annual leave, pension and benefits information
- Bank account details, payroll records, National Insurance number and tax status information
- Recruitment information, including copies of right to work documentation, references and other information included in an application form, CV or cover letter or as part of the application process
- Qualifications and employment records, including work history, job titles, working hours, training records and professional memberships
- Performance Management information
- Outcomes of any disciplinary and/or grievance procedures (retained in line with school policies)
- Absence data
- Copy of driving licence (if required for the role, eg. minibus driving)
- Photographs
- CCTV footage
- Data about your use of the school's ICT systems

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes information about (where applicable):

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
- Trade union membership
- Health, including any medical conditions, and sickness records

Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to help us run the school, including to:

- Enable you to be paid
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards students
- Ensuring your safety and wellbeing whilst engaged on school / Trust business
- Support effective performance management and pay progression
- Inform our recruitment and retention policies
- Allow better financial modelling and planning
- Enable ethnicity and disability monitoring
- Improve the management of workforce data across the sector

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Fulfil a contract we have entered into with you
- Comply with a legal obligation
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time by contacting your DPL in writing (or by email).

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment.

Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with the Information and Records Management Society's Record Retention Guidelines (a copy of which is available on the school's website and may be requested from the DPL).

Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- The London Borough of Hillingdon – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns
- The Department for Education - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as workforce data
- Other educational organisations or employers / recruitment agencies - eg. to provide employment references when you are seeking to develop your career
- Public Health England, NHS Track and Trace, and other public bodies responsible for the public health
- Examining bodies – in order to facilitate the entry of our students into public exams
- Ofsted – to meet our obligations in relation to the statutory inspection of state schools
- Suppliers and service providers – particularly Parentpay, Atomwide Capita Sims and Herts for Learning to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as the provision of our cashless catering and management information system
- Pension providers – in particular Teachers Pensions (TPS), the London Borough of Hillingdon (for LGPS) and Hampshire County Council (for LGPS)
- Our HR and Payroll Provider (currently SGW Payroll)
- Our internal and external auditors (currently Cooper Parry and Kreston Reeves LLP respectively)
- HMRC - to meet our legal obligations in relation to the settlement of tax
- The Home Office - in particular the Visa sponsorship section who issue work visas for overseas nationals.
- The Health and Safety Executive – to comply with our statutory obligation in relation to accident and RIDDOR reporting
- Health authorities and potentially the emergency services
- Maitland Medical who provide occupational health assessments
- EPM – in relation to the provision of statutory DBS checks
- Security organisations – in particular Select Systems who service our CCTV system

The school uses G Suite for Education (from Google) to support the delivery of education. Staff will be routinely issued with a Google email account, access to Google calendar, restricted access to YouTube and access to Google Classroom. The Privacy Notices for this suite of products can be separately accessed via the following link : https://edu.google.com/intl/en\_uk/trust/.

The school will also routinely put information into the public domain in order to demonstrate the high standards of education being delivered at Ruislip High School, by our staff and volunteers. This information will be limited to the name, job title and a possible picture of an individual. Information will be used in such places as the school website and twitter / instagram accounts, in regular newsletters, in documents such as concert programmes, the school prospectus and around the school in corridors and classrooms. This information may be in use for a reasonable time after you have left the school.

Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with Data Protection law.

Your rights - How to access personal information we hold about you

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please contact your DPL.

Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact your DPL.

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact the Data Protection Officer.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF

This notice is based on the Department for Education's model privacy notice for students, amended for staff and to reflect the way we use data in this school.
