Under Data Protection law, you have a legal right to be informed about how our school uses any personal information that we hold about you. This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about you.

Ruislip High School is a registered ‘data controller’ for the purposes of Data Protection law. The school has a Data Protection Policy, a copy of which can be obtained from the school’s website.

The school has appointed a Data Protection Lead (DPL) who is your first point of contact for any queries or subject access requests.

The Data Protection Lead for Ruislip High School is Mr Gould, Senior Leader.

The school is also required to appoint a Data Protection Officer. Your DPO is:

Miss Karen Williams, Business Manager, kwilliams@vynersschool.org.uk, 01895 234342

The personal data we hold

We hold some personal information about you to make sure we can help you learn and look after you at school.

For the same reasons, we get information about you from some other places too – like other schools, the local council and the government.

This information includes:

- Your contact details (and those of your parents and possibly some other relatives)
- Your test results and regular assessment by your teachers of your progress in all your subjects
- Curriculum records, such as your option choices and lesson timetable
- Your attendance records
- Your characteristics, like your ethnic background or any special educational needs
- Any medical conditions you have
- Details of any behaviour issues or exclusions
- Photographs
- CCTV footage

Why we use this data

We use this data to help run the school, including to:

- Get in touch with you and your parents when we need to

- Check how you're doing in exams and work out whether you or your teachers need any extra help
- Facilitate your safe participation in co-curricular activities and school trips
- Track how well the school as a whole is performing
- Look after your wellbeing

Our legal basis for using this data

We will only collect and use your information when the law allows us to. Most often, we will use your information where:

- We need to comply with the law
- We need to use it to carry out a task in the public interest (ie. in order to provide you with an education)

Sometimes, we may also use your personal information where:

- You, or your parents/guardians, have given us permission to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your interests (or someone else's interests)

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your information overlap, and there may be several grounds which mean we can use your data.

Where we have got permission to use your data, you or your parents/guardians may withdraw this at any time by contacting Miss Williams.

Collecting this information

While in most cases you, or your parents/guardians, must provide the personal information we need to collect, there are some occasions when you can choose whether or not to provide the data.

We will always tell you if it's optional. If you must provide the data, we will explain what might happen if you don't.

How we store this data

We will keep personal information about you while you are a student at our school. We will also keep it after you have left the school, where we are required to by law.

Information will be destroyed in accordance with the Information and Records Management Society's Record Retention Guidelines (a copy of which is available from Miss Williams). In most cases, all data held about you will be destroyed at the end of the academic year when you turn 25 years old.

Data sharing

We do not share personal information about you with anyone outside the school without permission from you or your parents/guardians, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary for another reason allowed under data protection law, we may share personal information about you with:

The London Borough of Hillingdon – we are legally obliged to share certain information with them, such as safeguarding concerns, information about school admissions, student exclusions and where you go once you leave the school.

- The Department for Education and Ofsted – we are legally obliged to share certain information in relation to student progress and to facilitate the statutory inspection of state schools
- Your parents (including those who might not live with you) and any other nominated family representatives
- Other educational providers or third-party organisations - to enable you to take part in extra-curricular activities and cross-school activities. This will be the case, for example, if you are a post-16 student studying as part of the 4H Consortium
- Examining bodies – in order to enable you to sit GCSE and A Level exams
- Suppliers and service providers – particularly Parentpay, RM, Atomwide, Capita Sims and Herts for Learning. These companies supply and support our cashless catering and management information system. London Grid for Learning (LGFL) helps us to check your eligibility for free school meals.
- Our Payroll Bureau (currently SGW Payroll) and HMRC – to facilitate payments to students who undertake paid work for us
- The Health and Safety Executive – to comply with our statutory obligation in relation to accident reporting
- Security organisations – in particular Select Systems who service our CCTV system

The emergency services (Police, Fire, Ambulance) – where information needs to be shared for safeguarding reasons or to provide assistance to a student. In all but emergency situations, the school requires requests for information in writing from the police

From time to time, we will recommend online tools and apps in order to support your learning. These include, but are not limited to: GCSEPod, Pixl, Kerboodle, My Maths, Maths Watch and Alps. In order to create an account for you, we may need to share a range of data to support your learning. If we wish to share further information we will obtain informed consent.

The school uses G Suite for Education (from Google) to support the delivery of education. Students will be routinely issued with a Google email account, access to Google calendar, restricted access to YouTube and access to Google Classroom. The Privacy Notices for this suite of products can be separately accessed via the following link: https://edu.google.com/intl/en_uk/trust/.

We may also make information public in order to congratulate students on their achievements. This might include using your photograph in the school prospectus and in other marketing information, putting pictures round the school of your learning taking place, adding your name to concert programmes or the school's facebook, instagram and twitter accounts, putting information in the school newsletter etc. The school will never share any personal information which will put you at risk.

Photographs / film footage of students

The school will routinely take and retain a photo of every student in the school. This will be stored securely on our management information system (SIMS) and enables staff to recognize you.

The photographs are taken and supplied by the school's external photographer– who has provided the school with the required evidence that they are GDPR compliant.

Certain subjects (in particular drama and performing arts) require us to take film footage of your controlled assessment. This will be supplied to exam boards for formal moderation.

The school often takes photographs at events and within class to help promote the school. Such images may be used in our prospectus, on the website, or around the school. These photographs may be in use for a reasonable time after you have left the school. Both you and your parents have the right to say that you would prefer such photographs not to be taken. If you take a different view from your parents, we will not take or use your image, and would encourage you to talk to your parents about this issue.

Sixth Form students will be asked to make their own decision about the taking and use of photographs when they enrol.

National Pupil Database

We are required to provide information about you to the Department for Education (a government department) as part of data collections such as the school census.

Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database, which is managed by the Department for Education and provides evidence on how schools are performing. This, in turn, supports research.

The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information it holds is collected securely from schools, local authorities, exam boards and others.

The Department for Education may share information from the database with other organisations which promote children's education or wellbeing in England. These organisations must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use your data.

You can find more information about this on the Department for Education's webpage. You can also contact the Department for Education if you have any questions about the database.

Youth support services

Once you reach the age of 13, we are legally required to pass on certain information about you to the London Borough of Hillingdon as it has legal responsibilities regarding the education or training of 13-19 year-olds.

This information enables it to provide youth support services, post-16 education and training services, and careers advisers.

Your parents/guardians can contact Miss Williams to ask us to only pass your name, address and date of birth to the London Borough of Hillingdon in connection with these services. This right passes to you once you reach the age of 16 years.

Transferring data internationally

Where we share data with an organisation that is based outside the European Economic Area, we will protect your data by following data protection law.

Your rights - How to access personal information we hold about you

You can find out if we hold any personal information about you, and how we use it, by making a 'subject access request', as long as we judge that you can properly understand your rights and what they mean.

If we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and using it, and how long we will keep it for

- Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your parents
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know if we are using your data to make any automated decisions (decisions being taken by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- Give you a copy of the information

You may also ask us to send your personal information to another organisation electronically in certain circumstances.

If you want to make a request please contact Miss Williams.

You have other rights over how your personal data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- Say that you don't want it to be used if this would cause, or is causing, harm or distress

- Have it corrected, deleted or destroyed if it is wrong, or restrict our use of it
